

Alaska Division of Agriculture Hemp Program

Signage Example

If a grow area is one acre or less, the registered grower shall post readable signage no smaller than a total area of 144 square inches at the grow area and visible to the public that includes the following information. The sign can be a square or any combination of length and width as long as the sign is no smaller than 144 square inches.

1. Title (required as is)
2. Registration Number (this is only an example)
3. Contact Information (required as is)

 This is only an example **